PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I'm a passionate full stack developer who enjoys turning ideas into real-world applications. With a strong foundation in the MERN stack and a working knowledge of Java and Python, I love building things that make people's lives easier. From frontend UI designs to backend APIs, I enjoy every step of the development process. I thrive in collaborative teams, appreciate clean code, and always aim to improve both my skills and the product I'm working on.
